

Leadership Quest

Leadership Quest, LMR's flagship program, connects a diverse group of community leaders, increases their knowledge and perspectives on regional issues and inspires them to embrace inclusion, collaboration and servant leadership. Through this ten-month program, which includes leadership training, access to high-impact decision-makers, and networking opportunities, individuals develop the necessary framework to make a positive and lasting impact in the greater Richmond region.

Why apply?

Team Up with Top Leaders | Leadership Quest selects top regional talent across profit and nonprofit and government organizations and connects them to transform community leadership.

Learn More About Regional Issues | As a member of this diverse group of community stakeholders, you will gain an insider's view into the various issues that impact our region.

Play a Bigger Role Within Your Organization | Your in-depth knowledge of these regional issues will make you an informed and highly-valued resource in any organization.

Enhance Skills for Community-Wide Leadership | You will learn about essential tools such as innovation for social change, policy analysis, regional planning, coalition building, intercultural communication and managing change.

Identify Your Role in Advancing the Region | See how your knowledge and expertise can contribute to advancing the Richmond region and leave the program with your personal strategic plan for taking your community leadership to the next level.

